June 14, 2011 – Last day of YMCA after-school programming at Audubon.

YMCA Choice Classes are included in the tuition of the YMCA after-school program. Students will choose among (1) Zephyr dance on Monday and Wednesday (2) Unicoi art on Monday and Wednesday (3) Peace School martial arts on Wednesday. Students will be able to choose a class each new YMCA session. Students may continue in the same Choice Class all year, or change classes each new session.

Audubon Teacher Clubs information will come home with students during the first two weeks of school. Students will register and return parent permission slips before being allowed to join these clubs. The Teacher Clubs are led by Audubon staff and are free of charge to students in grades 4-8.

Audubon Reading Support (A.R.S.) ARS is an invitation only, Monday – Thursday tutoring session that lasts from 1:45 – 2:45. Audubon staff will be teaching these reading classes. These classes are free of charge and are offered to K - 8.

ProClub information and sign-up sheets will be available at the registration events being held at Audubon on August 26 and 27 from noon to 6:00pm. New ProClubs may be added at different times throughout the school year, and ProClubs may also be eliminated due to insufficient demand. ProClubs are offered to a variety of grade levels.
